Order thereon No 9708 L.7.74-94

Dt Bangalore 20 February 96

In the revised list now submitted, there are 12 Bungalows with more than one servant in each. The Government have already sanctioned 2 servants for Sumbidibyle. Before sanction ~~Before sanction~~ is accorded to the retention of more than one servant in the remaining bungalows bungalows the Deputy Commissioner is requested to submit his proposals for the reduction of servants to the prescribed scale in as many Bungalows as possible with reference to the number of halts and the amount of fees collected.

2. In the new list three are — Musafirkhanas at Sagar and Karur with a sweeper for each on Rs 4 per mensem, while they find no place in the old list forwarded with his No. 947/775 dated 10th April 1894, which contains instead a Musafir-khana at Goddekoppa. — This discrepancy requires — explanation.

Sir,

With reference to the Govt. Procs. No. 9708 of 20th Octr. "
L.F. 14.94
requesting to submit proposals for the reduction of Servants to the prescribed scale in as many 3d class Travellers' Bungalows as possible, I have the honor to submit a Statement shewing the existing Establishment, the Establishment proposed to be retained and that to be reduced in each of such Bungalows maintained by the District Fund Board.

2. There are in all 17 3d Class Travellers Bungalows in the District

District with an Establishment costing Rs 2400 per Annum. The existing number of Servants has been proposed to be reduced from 40 to 18 caretakers with an annual cost of Rs 1260/- The number of Servants proposed to be reduced is 22 with a reduction of Rs 1140 per Annum.

3. In the Travellers Bungalows where there is more than one servant, it is proposed to retain one hand under the designation of a Caretaker on a pay of Rs 6/- in the Madan Taluks and Rs 7/- per mensem in the Malnad Taluks of the District excepting the Marginally noted × 5 Bungalows where the existing Scale of pay is allowed to continue without any increase, excepting Gombi Byle Bungalow where 2 hands are allowed to continue under special circumstances, and to request that Sanction of Govt may be accorded to the revision

× 1. Sulekere
